Re-Signing of the New Twinning Agreement held in Helston

The recently formed twinning agreement between Helston and Plougasnou was endorsed during a re-signing ceremony on 4 September 2011. A delegation from Plougasnou, Brittany headed by André Constant, Deputy Mayor of Plougasnou and acting on behalf of The Mayor of Plougasnou Yvon Tanguy, enjoyed their recent visit to Helston by combining this important ceremony with the Gorsedh celebrations.

Special guests included members of Helston's long established twin town of Sasso Marconi, who offered their best wishes for a long and happy future to both town.

The original signing ceremony was held in Plougasnou on 25 June 2011, which was attended by Helston's Mayor, councillor John Boase and Plougasnou Mayor Yvon Tanguy.

The weekend continued with a visit to Helston Bowling Club, where an exchange of gifts took rise to a short bowling challenge.

A drive around the coast provided an ideal opportunity for the visitors to engage the brisk Cornish sea air.

Following a picnic at The Minack Theatre, the group were presented with a magnificent performance of 'Fiddler on the Roof'.
